

caraminhoca

Caraminhoca, was recently created to produce good books for children and young people and have in its catalog alternative titles that are attractive by their text, design and images.

Our goals is to produce beautiful literature for the joy of all ages.

Crow

Curious crow flies far away, waiting for knowing the world beyond. There, from above, the crow sees all sorts of colours, climates, friends, and even dangers!

Giraffe

A cricket sets out to spend the day with his friend Giraffe. But sudden gust of wind blows Cricket away. Giraffe begins asking everyone about his friend: in the anthill, in the beehive, untills...

Cricket

Cricket is looking for a pal to hang out with, to hop around with, to hang and hop about with. He keeps reaching out to new animals, but who knows how to jump? He finds that everyone has their own way of moving in the world.

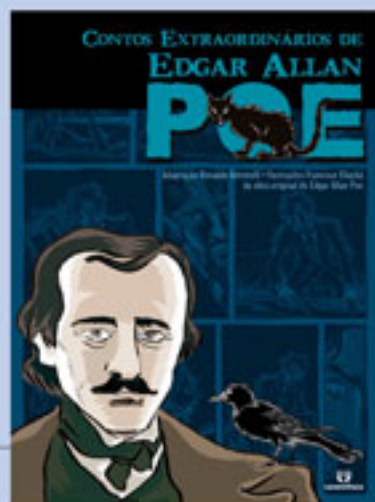

Maria the laughter

This girl loves to laugh. She is happy no matter what. To learn that happiness are around us and laugh an smile is not an issue could even be a solution is what Rosinha gives us in this story.

Extraordinary tales of Edgar Allan Poe

In the short stories adapted here, you'll find The man of the crowd, The snitching heart, Never bet the Devil your head, The cask of amontillado, The black cat, and Manuscript found in a bottle. In addition to the poems Annabel Lee, Ulalume and The Crow. You'll be surprised!

Kafka's Metamorphosis

This is a comic book adaptation of the most iconic work by one of the leading writers of all times. Metamorphosis, first published en 1915, is one of the most read and studied works worldwide. Franz Kafka explores human relationship by provoking readers to self-question and transform themselves.

Tales of Tchekhov

In this book, a little of the work of Anton Tchekhov, one of the greatest storytellers is presented. In each story, the illustration of Vilachã enfatize the complex, surprising, obscure and human thaits of the characters.

